

"MARY BEIRNE" WEDDED TO EDITOR KERR TO-DAY.

As Art and Music Critic Bride Is Known Throughout America.

The marriage of Mrs. Annie McIver Beirne to George F. Kerr will be solemnized at high noon to-day at St. Leo's rectory, Father Dukey officiating. Mrs. Beirne was Commissioner of Music at the Columbian Exposition and was special commissioner at the fair at Omaha. She is a sister of F. F. McIver, of the firm of Burns Brothers, Wall street, and daughter of James F. McIver, of Utica. She has lived in Seattle, St. Paul and Chicago, and is socially well known in these cities. She has been a successful art and music critic, writing under the pen name of Mary Beirne.

Mr. Kerr, formerly city editor of the Milwaukee Journal and President of the Milwaukee Press Club, is secretary-manager of the National Tea-Duty Repeal Association. He is in charge of the movement, backed by an association of wholesale dealers to secure the repeal of the duty on tea, the measure coming before the House next Tuesday. The President of the association is G. Waldo Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerr will be at home after April at the Rixons, No. 49 East Thirty-second street.

MIND WRECKED BY NURSING WIFE.

SAMUEL PUTNEY NOW IN IN- SANE ASYLUM.

Had Stayed Awake Day and Night
by Beside After Discharge-ing Trained Nurses.

Samuel Putney, of No. 204 Dean street, Brooklyn, nursed his wife so devotedly for six weeks that he lost his mind. He is now confined in the Kings County Insane Asylum and his wife is still in a precarious condition. Mrs. Putney is suffering from pneumonia. Her husband is wealthy, and when she became ill he hired trained nurses and prepared to give her every possible attention.

GRIP?

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Cures
Grip, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis,
Asthma, Catarrh, Consumption and All Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

CURED OF GRIP AT 70.
Gentlemen, I take pleasure in informing you that although I am 70 years old, I have been cured of a severe attack of the grip by using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Mrs. ELIZA REAM, Reading, Pa. Dec. 11, 1901.

Quintessence I had a very bad spell of grip, and Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey did me good. It is better than all the medicine I have taken. JESSE E. WEBB, West Chester, Pa., Nov. 20, 1901.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is absolutely pure and unadulterated, and contains no fusel oil. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only, and has the name "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Company" blown in the bottle, and has the trademark, the "Chemist's Head," on the label. If offered in flasks or in bulk, it is not "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey." When a remedy has been before the public so long, has been recommended and prescribed by doctors, and has carried the blessings of health to so many thousands of homes as "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey," imitations are bound to arise. It is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee. All druggists and grocers, or direct, $1 a bottle.

FREE.—If you are sick and run down, write Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y. All correspondence in strictest confidence. It will cost you nothing to learn how to regain health, strength and vitality. This is a guarantee. All druggists and grocers, or direct, $1 a bottle.

DR. KOCH OFFERS HIS SERVICES FREE.

Hundreds of patients have added us to their list of free services through February, and we have given to this general request. Our only charge is for the Koch himself by appointment. The New York office is at 48 West 23d St. We also have offices in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Buffalo, Rochester, Baltimore, Asheville, and Washington. Those who desire treatment please send for blank to be filled out and complete with full information. You can see Dr. Edward Koch himself by appointment. Initiators are being presented for using our trade marks and patents. They all originally worked for Dr. Koch at 68 W. 23d St., New York.

SMALL, BUT SHE CATCHES BURGLAR

MRS. TICE HAS ROUGH-AND- TUMBLE FIGHT.

When Burglar Gives Her the Strang-gle Hold He Falls Into Policeman's Arms.

Mrs. Thomas Tice, of No. 161 Washington avenue, Brooklyn, is small but plucky. When she returned from a shopping tour and found a man trying to open her front door with a "jimmy" she was amazed, but she did not lose her presence of mind.

The burglar darted past her after dropping his tools. She grabbed him by the overcoat, and both tumbled down the steps. There the burglar effected his release from Mrs. Tice's grasp, but ran into the arms of a policeman who had been attracted by the noise.

The man gave his name and address as Frank White, No. 125 West Twenty-fifth street, Manhattan.

MODEST ADMIRER'S GIFT TO SCHLEYS.

ADMIRAL AND WIFE RECEIVE HANDSOME PIANO.

Anonymous Donor Says He Wishes to Avoid Notoriety and Conceals Name.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Admiral and Mrs. Schley would like to know the name of the donor of their new piano, so that they can send their thanks. The instrument is a valuable one and was accompanied by a receipted bill for $1,000 sent by the manufacturer. The name of the buyer did not appear on the bill, which was accompanied by a brief note saying that the gift comes from a sincere admirer, who wished to avoid notoriety, but wished to express his regard for the Admiral.

DOOR WEIGHS 42,000 LBS.

Yet Any Child Can Open It With a Thread.

The largest safe deposit door and vestibule in the world were moved successfully yesterday into the basement of the Broadway Exchange Building, where for over a year the preliminaries of fitting up the vault of the Standard Safe Deposit Company have been going on. Enormous derricks and rigging machines were set up in Broad street and did the work.

Together they weigh forty-eight tons. The door, which is circular in form, weighs 42,000 pounds, and the hinge

Lace Curtains, Draperies and Upholstery of Every Kind
at Remarkable Price Inducements.

Days of stirring interest in the Upholstery Store on the Third Floor. LACE CURTAINS, PORTIERES, TAPESTRIES, COUCH COVERS, DAMASKS, ORIENTAL ARTWARES.

The woman who loves a beautiful home will be intensely interested in this sale, for everything that is thoroughly artistic is here, and in such excellent assortments that her enthusiasm will be speedily aroused.

PRICE IS A POWERFUL FACTOR.

Lace Curtains were never snower, cheerier nor more beautifying than the crisp, new 1902 styles we are showing in hundreds of striking patterns.

The Portieres and Oriental Tapestries are shown in bewilderingly smart effects, embodying all the very strongest possible color and pattern combinations, and at the same time indicating refinement of art with unmistakable emphasis.

NEVER DID A SPRING SEASON

Begin more auspiciously in the Upholstery Store. Hotel men, home dwellers, boarding-house proprietors, furnished-room renters and many others will find this a splendid opportunity to obtain upholsteries at most uncommon price attractions. You must see the things to realize what great bargains you are obtaining.
